North Hempstead 2013 FamilyFest

Sunday, September 15th, noon - 5:30 p.m.

Spend a Fun-Filled Day at the Town Beach!

North Hempstead Beach Park will play host to the Ninth Annual FamilyFest celebration!

FamilyFest 2013 kicks off at Noon on September 15th with activities including kayaking, a petting zoo, arts & crafts, face painting, photo booth, the New York Knicks Groove Truck and much more!

This year's event will feature musical performances from four outstanding groups. Denzil Botus, a steel pan player from Trinidad, will kick off with music influenced by jazz and calypso.

Bach to Rock, an 8-piece band, will follow with a catalog of hits including, Journey's "Don't Stop Believing," Adele's "Rolling In The Deep," and Icona Pop's "I Don't Care." Minute by Minute will return to the North Hempstead stage and pay homage to Michael McDonald as well as playing other classic rock anthems. Mack and Soul will close out the show with a selection of Motown hits and 60's musical revue.

FamilyFest 2013 is brought to you by North Hempstead in partnership with the Town's Business and Tourism Development Corporation, and the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The event is FREE. A $5 per vehicle parking fee will be charged. For more information, please call 311.

Save Money and Energy with Long Island Green Homes in North Hempstead

Thousands of Long Islanders have already saved money on their energy bills by making their homes more energy efficient. Supervisor Jon Kaiman and the North Hempstead Town Board encourage you to join them by arranging a free or reduced-cost energy audit on your home. In addition to saving money, you can make your home more comfortable to live in all while protecting the environment and helping create green jobs.

Call 311 for more information on how to schedule your energy audit.

Did You Know?

- In 1775, a group of North Hempstead patriots declared their allegiance to the revolutionary cause and broke away from the Town of Hempstead which was predominantly loyal to England at the time.
- The Town of North Hempstead was officially established through an act of the New York State Legislature in 1784.
- In the 19th Century, North Hempstead became the seat of Queens County, which included the three towns of North Hempstead, Hempstead and Oyster Bay.
- In 1899, each of these three towns incorporated and became the County of Nassau.
